

Ice Cleaning Environmental Limited is committed to its dedication in implementing Health & Safety through its quality management system. It recognises that the quality management system is a key contribution to expanding its business whilst maintaining and enhancing its current reputation.

Ice Cleaning Environmental Limited intend to promote the highest practicable standards in health & Safety, to provide employees with a safer working environment and ensure the implementation of Health, Safety and welfare to employees and third parties affected by its projects.

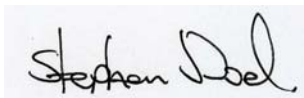

The Policy:

- ◆ Provide Health & Safety advice.
- ◆ Make the Health & Safety policy available to all.
- ◆ Comply and be made aware of new legislation, regulation and follow relevant industry codes of practice.
- ◆ To provide premises, plant and equipment that contribute to a safe and healthy working environment.
- ◆ Monitoring of all staff as to their competence and training requirements.
- ◆ Monitoring site activities assessing methods of works, and associated risks.
- ◆ Implement regular safety audits on the effectiveness of site works and update methods and risks accordingly.
- ◆ Compiling Health & safety statistics for regular review.
- ◆ Consultation with the staff seeking active support and participation Health & Safety matters and recording information.

Key Responsibilities:

Ice Cleaning Environmental Limited board are accountable for Health & Safety matters. Operational Managers are responsible for Health & Safety performance within their areas.

The objectives of this policy may only be achieved with the co-operation of all employees, who have a legal duty to take responsibility for their own Health & Safety and of others affected by their work activities.

Steve Noel
Managing Director.
27/01/2008